
PUBLICATIONS AND PUBLIC OUTREACH

Educational outreach and public involvement provide opportunities to reach targeted or broad audiences. Historical Perspectives, Inc. (HPI) has created diverse informational and educational publications, displays, kiosks, and permanent panels for both private and public entities.

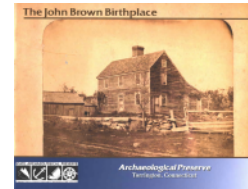

HPI's award winning series of Connecticut State Preserve booklets and other publications serve to educate the public about significant cultural resources. Celebrating people, places, and objects with historical distinctiveness serves to enrich the community and provide educational opportunities while satisfying Section 106 requirements.

HPI publications and public displays include:

- ❖ Scovill Brass: Buttons, Cameras, and Cartridge Cases
- ❖ Environmental Review Primer for Connecticut's Archaeological Resources.
- ❖ An award-winning booklet series: Connecticut's State Archaeological Preserves:

His Beloved Aunt Polly
Cornfield Point Light Vessel LV-51
The John Brown Birthplace
Viaducts, Bridges, and Ghost Trains
Can't Ya Hear the Whistle Blowin'

- ❖ Fort Trumbull: Ramparts, Subs, and Sonar
- ❖ Exhibit Panels & Exhibit Brochure, Poughkeepsie Train Station, Metro-North RR
- ❖ Educational Panels, in production, Willis Avenue Bridge Reconstruction, NYC DOT
- ❖ Photography Exhibit: Yale and Towne: A Photographic Essay

